

Wood and Price back tonight?

WITH the Government restrictions on floodlighting lifted last week, Wycombe Wanderers return to Tuesday night football when they meet Woking for the third time this season tonight. The visit to Kingsfield will be the Blues' first floodlight game since November 13 when they beat St. Albans 3-0 (writes Stuart Earp).

For tonight's match, Wanderers are expected to make at least a couple of changes to the side that could only draw 0-0 with Sutton United at Loakes Park on Saturday. Tony Price, their exciting young forward, is available for his first game since February 23 in a Wycombe shirt.

Price could replace one of two players. On Saturday, Tony Horseman was obviously suffering from a leg injury sustained against Oxford which necessitated five stitches and he may stand down. But if Horseman plays, Dylan Evans is likely to be dropped. Dylan has been sadly off form since Wycombe's victory at Corinthian Casuals.

Manager Brian Lee may also alter the back four. Derek Gamblin's return was hardly a success against Sutton and Phil Wood is standing by to replace him at full-back.

Placed 18th in the table at present, Woking have played only 19 league matches compared with Wycombe's 29 and Tooting's 37. It will indeed be an energetic end of season for the Surrey club with three matches every week. The reason for their backlog of fixtures is easily explained by their success in cup competitions. In all they have played 22 cup ties this term, several of which have been replays.

The best run came in the Amateur Cup when they reached the quarter-finals before going out to Ashington 0-2. In the Surrey Senior Cup they lost to Leatherhead after a replay while in the London Senior, Walton and Hersham brought their downfall. Their F.A. Cup hopes were ended by Wycombe, of course, who beat them 1-0 at Loakes Park on October 6.

That defeat came only three days after Wanderers had triumphed 3-2 in a league match with a Tony Horseman penalty deciding the match eight minutes from time. In both games Woking goalkeeper Dave Collyer was outstanding and after their F.A. Cup defeat he was given a great ovation by the Blues fans, who chaired him off the field.
